Jesus Spotted at Fringe Festival, and He's Damned Funny

In the beginning, there was mournful sorrow, abject pain, and unbearable suffering throughout the world. Then came Jesus Christ, King of Comedy, and the world's been laughing ever since. Finally you can laugh too when Jesus Christ comes to the Kansas City Fringe Festival this summer.

Learn the story of the man behind the myth – the greatest entertainer who ever walked on water. Discover the secret of his troubled youth, envy his sudden rise to fame, and be blown away by the career-topping finale that people are still talking about today. Now you can experience the eternal love and joy of Jesus Christ, King of Comedy. Even if you don't enjoy it – what the hell, it's only an hour long.

Jesus Christ, King of Comedy was written by Bryan Colley, Tara Varney, Michelle Cotton, and Young Han C. Lester. The cast includes George Forbes as Jesus, Susan Glennemeier as Mary, Nick Uthoff as Joseph, Charlotte Kyle as Judas, and Michelle Cotton as John the Baptist. Tara Varney directs.

Performance dates and times are:

8:00 p.m. Thursday, July 24

6:30 p.m. Friday, July 25

11:00 p.m. Friday, July 25

9:30 p.m. Saturday, July 26

2:30 p.m. Sunday, July 27

Jesus Christ, King of Comedy will be performed at XS Lighting at 1632 Broadway (near the downtown Denny's). Tickets are $6 with a Fringe Festival button. For more information and photos visit www.kingofcomedy.net.
